

Sacramento County Opioid Coalition | Terms & Conditions

By agreeing to the Terms & Conditions I acknowledge that I am providing a written message, name, and email address through the sacopioidcoalition.org website for the “Anti-Stigma” project.

I desire to engage in the Anti-Stigma Project voluntarily and for my own personal reasons. In consideration of providing a written message for use by the Project, I hereby expressly assume all risk arising out of my participation. I agree that my image and words will appear on the Website and may be used in other aspects of the Project including but not limited to media and advertising.

I agree to not sue, and do release, indemnify and hold harmless, the Sacramento County Opioid Coalition, its affiliates, officers, directors, volunteers and employees, and all contractors and agents of such contractors, from any and all liabilities, claims, demands, and causes of action whatsoever, arising out of my participation in the Project, whether arising from the negligence of any of the above parties or from any other cause. The foregoing release, indemnification, and hold harmless shall be as broad and inclusive as is permitted by the state in which I live.

I acknowledge that I assign the right to the Sacramento County Opioid Coalition and the Project to gather, process, analyze, and retain the demographic and/or other information that I supply through the Website so that the Project may inform its programs and services. I consent to the use of my image and words by the Project of any of this demographic and/or other information. I authorize the Project to email me information about the Project and related programs offered by the Project partners and the Sacramento County Opioid Coalition.

I acknowledge and agree that the Sacramento County Opioid Coalition may discontinue the Project without notice to me and that I shall have no continuing rights in the Project upon such termination. I assert that I am the person about whom the information I am providing relates. If any portion of this agreement is held invalid, the balance shall continue in full force and effect.
