

Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Prevention and Treatment Panel

What We Have, What We Need

Prevention

Outpatient/Intensive
Outpatient

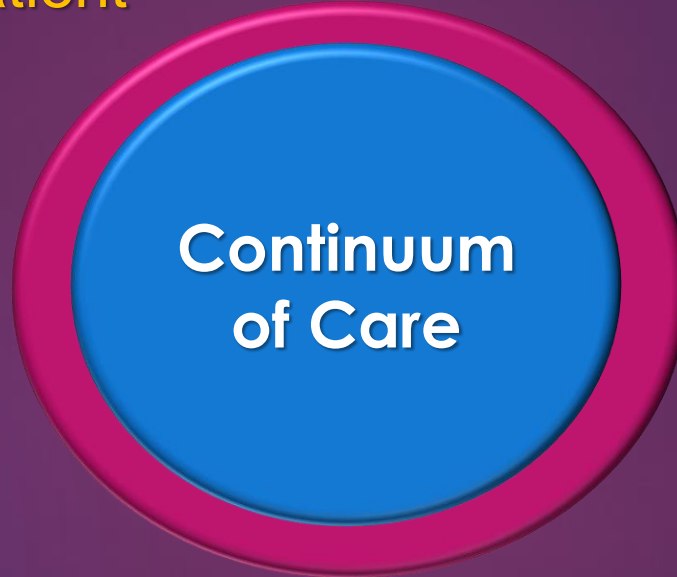

Residential

Detox / Withdrawal
Management

Medication
Assisted Treatment

Recovery
Residences

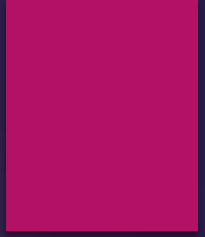

Collaborative
Court Programs

DUI Programs

Perinatal
Services

Outpatient & Intensive Outpatient

- ASAM 1.0 – Outpatient
 - Ten (10) program sites
- ASAM 2.1 – Intensive Outpatient
 - Nine (9) program sites

Specialty groups: perinatal groups, co-occurring, fathers, Prop 36, and other various groups for specific populations

Residential Treatment

- ASAM 3.1 Residential

- Structured SUD treatment / recovery services that are provided in a 24-hour residential care setting with patients receiving at least 5 hours of clinical services per week.
- Twelve (12) program sites
- Total bed capacity: 196 (16 are perinatal)

- ASAM 3.5 Residential

- 24-hour structured living environments with high-intensity clinical services for individuals who have multiple challenges to recovery and require safe, stable recovery environment combined with a high level of treatment services.
- Seven (7) program sites
- Total bed capacity: 93 (Included in 196)

Opioid Treatment Programs

Treatment programs for opioid use disorders and stabilization including counseling, methadone, other FDA medications, and coordination of care. All are billing for non-methadone required medications.

- Nine (9) program sites = 4,700 slots
 - Six (6) in-County program sites
 - ✓ Slots: 4,210
 - Three (3) out-of-County program sites
 - ✓ Slots: 490

Recovery Residences

24-hour residential drug-free housing for individuals in outpatient or intensive outpatient treatment who need drug-free housing to support their recovery while in treatment.

- Six (6) program sites
 - ✓ Four (4) sites serve perinatal women
- Total bed capacity: 167
 - ✓ 104 beds for women and their accompanying children

After shari's: Thank you to our panelists,

Dr. Randall Stentson, Founder, C.O.R.E. Medical Clinic Inc.

Tianna Hammock, Program Planner, Sacramento County Adult Correctional Health,
SUD Treatment in Jail

Joelle Orrock, Coordinator, Sacramento County Office of Education,
Sacramento Coalition for Youth

Shari Egeland, Associate Director, Omni Youth Programs, Prevention Services